AMENDMENT OR CANCELLATION COSTS FOR CUSTOMERS WHO HAVE NOT YET COMMENCED THEIR JOURNEY

The Australian Department of Foreign Affairs (DFAT) updated its travel advice on the 21st April 2011. DFAT has downgraded its travel advice to Tokyo from “Do Not Travel” to “High Degree of Caution”. This advice is available at www.smarttraveller.gov.au. DFAT advises (in part):

We advise you not to travel to Ibaraki, Tochigi, Iwate, Miyagi and Fukushima prefectures, including the 80 kilometre exclusion zone, unless your presence there is essential, due to limitations on essential services, infrastructure damage, and ongoing concern about the status of the Fukushima Nuclear Power Plant.

Transport and other services in parts of Japan west of Tokyo and surrounding areas have returned to normal operation.

If prior to you leaving your home to begin your Journey your travel plans have been directly affected by the earthquake or tsunami, there is provision to claim for Amendment or Cancellation costs.

Please contact your travel agent or travel provider regarding the best option for you in amending your trip.

You must take all reasonable steps to minimise your claim and keep documentation showing what your original planned pre-paid arrangements were, along with receipts and documentation showing what your new arrangements are. The policy provides cover for amendment or cancellation (whichever is less).

No cover will be provided for the utilised portion of prepaid travel arrangements. If you are claiming additional accommodation or transport expenses there is no provision to also claim for the cancellation cost of pre-paid travel arrangements for the same period. The policy also excludes cover for loss of enjoyment.

When submitting your claim you will need to provide written confirmation from the travel arrangements provider (transport, accommodation or tour provider) indicating the prepaid arrangement that has been affected along with itemised receipts and advice of the non-refundable unused component. Please note that many airlines and travel providers are waiving normal cancellation penalties.

Our advice will be updated regularly. Please check our website at www.covermore.com.au closer to the time of your departure. We will be guided by the latest travel advice published by the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs as to which areas are safe/ unsafe to travel to.

CUSTOMERS STUCK OVERSEAS WHO CANNOT RETURN HOME

For customers who hold a Cover-More policy issued on or before the 11th March 2011 and cannot return home on their original return date due to airport closure or other disruption to transport, their policy will automatically extend free of charge to allow them to return by the quickest and most direct route.
