1. Who is this travel insurance product designed for, and what are the likely objectives, financial situation, and needs, of customers in this target market?

The Virgin Australia Integrated Domestic Travel Insurance product available when booking your trip through virginaustralia.com can provide insurance for people who are travelling in Australia. The product includes a range of common covers subject to the travel insurance plan. Additional criteria relevant to the travel insurance plan is set out on the following page.

This Target Market Determination (TMD) sets out the target market for:

- Domestic (Integrated)

Domestic (Integrated) Plan Travel Insurance

2. Who is the product designed for?

This product with a Domestic Travel Insurance Plan has been designed for individuals who a) have a trip in Australia, b) need to reduce some unforeseen costs associated with domestic travel and c) want to be covered against financial loss caused by certain unforeseen incidents involving leisure travel where the loss suffered may be material if there is no cover ("customers").

These customers are willing to select an appropriate level of cover relevant to their own circumstances. These customers can pay the premium and bear the excess, or an equivalent reduction in claim payments, in the event of a covered claim. Customers may need to bear the cost of upfront payments for incurred losses before being reimbursed where we don't cover losses upfront. Circumstances where we don't make upfront payments include if we have not agreed that you are covered. Limits, exclusions and conditions apply which also affect the amount of any claim payment.
