

Important information regarding: Nepal earthquake

Issued: 27 April 2015

This advice applies to customers who are concerned or may be affected by the recent earthquake in Nepal.

Background

On 25 April 2015 a large earthquake struck Nepal. The following information has been published on the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade Smart Traveller website.

“A large earthquake struck Nepal on 25 April 2015. The epicentre was 80 kms west of Kathmandu. Extensive damage has occurred to buildings, including in Kathmandu and Pokhara. A large number of deaths and injuries have been reported. Aftershocks are expected. Travellers should expect disruption to telecommunications, transport and tourist infrastructure in affected areas.

The international airport at Kathmandu is open but flight schedules have been disrupted by the earthquake. Australians seeking to depart Nepal should contact their airline for latest information on flight schedules. Australian travellers should remain in a safe location and follow the instructions of local authorities. You should check with your transport provider, tour operator or hotel for latest information on disruptions.”

This information is current to 27 April 2015 and we recommend you regularly check for updates at <http://smarttraveller.gov.au/zw-cgi/view/Advice/Nepal>.

Your policy provides a number of benefits, limits and exclusions that may be relevant to your travel plans. You should read the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) which outlines the extent of your travel insurance cover. Some words used in this document have a special meaning as defined in the PDS.
